DEPARTMENTAL ACADEMIC EVENTS WARFARE

Following the event's opening ceremony concluded, organizing team led participants from the auditorium to the college grounds where the INSPIRE-SJ was taking place. The entire college was decorated with huge Posters and hoardings which were reflecting INSPIRE-SJ theme. The banners denoting departmental activities details added to more beauty for the atmosphere, and eye-popping Rangolis caught everyone's attention.

In INSPIRE-SJ, Degree, MCA and M.Sc took part. The Degree program is composed of 7 other departments named Mathematics and Humanities, Physics and electronics, Computer science, Life Sciences, Chemistry, Commerce and English. Each department with utmost care designed various activities for the participants, aiming to evoke their inner talents and critical thinking, and enrich their potential in empirical practices through these events.

For the smooth execution of departmental events, several committees were formed under the auspices of the convener and supervisor. The events from the Degree departments included Exploring MATLAB, Prototype (Working Model), Spark Tank, Project Expo, Applications of Chemistry in forensic Sciences-Test Exhibit, Chemistry Escape Room, Chemistry Film Screening, Multimedia Storytelling. The MCA department featured Project Expo and Application Development using AR and VR. The M.Sc department integrated Applications of Chemistry in forensic Sciences-Test Exhibit, Chemistry Escape Room, Chemistry Film Screening.

With the help and assistance of committees' members, external student participants actively and effectively participated in the competitions. All are endowed with compelling and commendable talents. They competed with one another in academic activities hosted by various departments. Students performed to the best of their abilities to improve the grades that they have already received in other events from different colleges. Everybody has distinctive talents. They were not comparable with one another. They were assertive while performing their presentations. On the whole, they were greatly engaged in displayed utmost aptitude for learning, acquisition of knowledge, immersing in the participation. Judges who were invited rendered their services with care and gave satisfactory and commendable judgements.

Overall, academic events warfare was a great success. All participants and faculty representatives, witnessed the coordination and contributions by organizing team and left a feeling of utmost satisfaction for the INSPIRE-SJ.

FOOD & FUN STALLS

Parallely, along with academic competitions, FOOD & FUN stalls were arranged inside the arch in INSPIRE-SJ to help the participants remember beautiful memories and how much fun they had in their hearts for long. Moreover, it was like a stimulant to revitalize the exhausted bodies with academic activities. FOOD & FUN was composed of 20 stalls and were set up by the internal students in the college ground premises. Sri. Ch. S. V. Satyanarayana, Vice-Principal, was set in charge of the Stalls. He disciplined FOOD & FUN the whole day for smooth happening. For stalls set out, all the needs were supplied with two days before of the event by college management.

On the day of event, FOOD & FUN appeared majestic with vibrant colors of ice-creams, palatable chicken lollypops, delicious foods and drinks, eye-catching pastry foods, mouth-watering dry fruits laddus, and predominantly high compelling music. The internal students who were inclined to make stalls have an avocation for making food items which is why they made palatable foods. Moreover, the freshly prepared food smelled heavenly. Apart from departmental activities in the classrooms, FOOD & FUN was taking place with the teams of stall and a few visitors. After delivery of their presentations in the enrolled competitions, participants joined FOOD & FUN waked on air. As the day was passing, most importantly from 2 pm onwards, a huge crowd of students thronged to stalls and it continued with the same crowd until evening. FOOD & FUN was abuzz with students. Stalls with fabulous surroundings prevented every visitor presented there from moving out of the stalls. Every face was pouring down happiness.

Endless arrival of the student participants brought grace to FOOD & FUN. On the whole, FOOD & FUN became a cynosure to the INSPIRE-SJ.

DISTRIBUTION OF PRIZES FOR THE WINNERS IN ACADEMIC ACTIVITIES AT INSPIRE-SJ:

At around 4 pm, the academic competitions' warfare ended with flying colors. Every participant was eager to know who made the cut in the competitions. Again, the entire college, along with guest of honors and chief guest, reassembled at the auditorium for the much-awaited prize distribution ceremony, a significant occasion in the celebrations.

B. V. Raju College honored the winners of the INSPIRE-SJ with mementos, validating their hard work and exceptional dedication exhibited in their academic competitions. During the prize distribution ceremony, the guest of honor, Sri P.Srinivas Raju garu, Director of Student affairs, SVES, along with Prof. M.Brahmanandam garu, Dr. Chinnaraju garu, presented mementos with winners. Other dignitaries, including Dr. I.R.Krishanam Raju garu, Sri. Ch.S.V.Satyanarayana garu, also joined this momentous occasion.

All the winners were delighted in receiving mementos from the hands of towering personalities with erudition and expertise. This distribution of mementos made the event more significant and filled the event with ecstasy.

The esteemed personalities congratulated the winners and extended their admiration for their avidity for learning something new and active participation in the competitions. They encouraged the participants to keep the same spirit of participation, enthusiasm and excellence in the impending events in future.

CULTURAL SHOWCASES:

Cultural showcases like Dancing, Singing, Dramas, etc., are like taking a mini vacation from the stress of everyday work of all, including student participants, faculty, and even esteemed guests. Dancing, in particular, serves as excellent medicine for getting relief from the grief. This is the reason why, after the conclusion of INSPIRE-SJ academic competitions prize distribution, the organizing team arranged cultural performances by internal students in INSPIRE-SJ.

Students performed dances individually and in group also. With their dance performances, dancers hypnotized the audience. The entire auditorium was filled with buzz of whistles and shouts. The dance movements, pliability of the body, energetic jumps, coordination of the team members, matchless performances left an indelible impression in the hearts of participants. The cultural showcases captivated event external participants, and they also joined and displayed thrilling performances.

SRI.K.V.VISHNU RAJU GARU'S INTERACTION WITH THE PARTICIPANTS FROM STATES

In particular, Sri. K.V.Vishnu Raju garu, interacted with the student participants from other states in INSPIRE-SJ, commended them for their exceptional dedication and focus in participating academic competitions, visiting distant colleges in other states and countries. He also appreciated them for their unwavering commitment to building a successful career. He also extended his heartfelt thanks to the colleges' representatives, who are caring, who led the student participants to competition.
